

The Bulletin's Circulation in Norwich is Double That of Any Other Paper, and Its Total Circulation is the Largest in Proportion to the City's Population

MEN "HIGHER UP" TO BE DISCOVERED

Detective Burns Says Everybody Involved in Dynamite Outrages Will be Prosecuted

IS NOW ASSISTING THE FEDERAL AUTHORITIES

Discusses With United States District Attorney Evidence to be Presented to Federal Grand Jury at Indianapolis, Dec. 14—Burns Asserts That Gompers Knew of McNamara's Guilt—Several Labor Unions Take Action in Matter.

Indianapolis, Dec. 3.—Plans for the federal investigation which may uncover men alleged to have been involved in the McNamara brothers' dynamiting operations in many states went forward in consultations in this city today.

Federal Grand Jury Comes in Dec. 14.—Detective William J. Burns discussed with United States District Attorney Charles W. Miller the evidence to be presented to the federal grand jury when it resumes its sessions Dec. 14. Neither would make a public statement in relation to their talks.

All Will Be Brought to Justice.—"We shall not rest until we have brought to justice all those connected with the dynamiting outrages throughout the country," said Mr. Burns. "I am no respecter of persons, and whether the men associated with the McNamara brothers are 'lower down' or 'higher up' they will be prosecuted."

Exposure to Come from Indictments.—Any exposure that may be made will come from indictments. If indictments are returned, for violation of the federal statute regulating interstate transportation of explosives, the McNamara brothers will be indicted.

Burns Confers With "Open Shop" Leaders.—Along this line Mr. Burns conferred today with J. E. Burns, president of the National Association of Manufacturers, and D. M. Barry, a former president of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America, and other leaders of the "open shop" principle.

Detectives Busy for Weeks.—The National Erectors' association is represented on the scene of the inquiry by J. A. G. Badger. Several detectives in the city have been assigned to watch the movements of persons connected with the McNamara brothers. The association has been in the city for weeks and are said to be watching the movements of persons connected with the McNamara brothers.

100 Explosions Since 1905.—"The fact that two men are to be indicted for the explosion at the bridge is the most important feature of this investigation," said Mr. Badger. "The members of the National Erectors' association are interested chiefly in exposing and bringing to justice the persons responsible for the explosion at the bridge and structural iron work since August, 1905, in many places, from Massachusetts to the Pacific coast."

Others Besides McNamaras Concerned.—"The property destroyed was that of companies and individuals, not of iron workers. This cost of this campaign of terrorism was enormous and it was systematic," said Mr. Badger. "I assert that a number of men besides the McNamara brothers were concerned in the explosion at the bridge and structural iron work since August, 1905, in many places, from Massachusetts to the Pacific coast."

President Ryan Not in Town.—No information was obtained from the whereabouts of Frank Ryan, president of the association of Iron Workers, who was expected to arrive in this city tonight from Atlanta, Ga., where he was yesterday.

GOMPERS' STATEMENT.—American Federation's President May Make One in Week.—New York, Dec. 3.—"I probably shall have a formal statement to make, but positively not until I have returned to my headquarters in Washington and gone over the McNamara cases thoroughly," said Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor, today.

"When will you return to Washington?" "Probably tomorrow, but I have numerous engagements to keep which may take a week's time before I am ready to make my statement."

"Thompson, the labor leader, for full penalty for the self-convinced men is said to be spreading. Will you oppose clemency?" "We will let the court sentence the men. I will not talk."

Mr. Gompers was asked if he approved of the proposal to turn the fund of $100,000 collected for the defense of the McNamara brothers over to the defense of the McNamara brothers. He replied: "I have nothing to say."

GOMPERS KNEW OF GUILT.—Detective Burns Considers Sam to Membership in Annapolis Club.—Indianapolis, Ind., Dec. 3.—"Mr. Gompers knew all the time that the McNamara brothers were guilty," was the statement made today by W. J. Burns, the detective, in connection with his talk today with United States District Attorney Charles W. Miller and John Kirby, Jr., of Dayton, O., president of the National Association of Manufacturers, at the home of David M. Barry, a former president of the United Brotherhood of Carpenters and Joiners of America.

Knew McNamara Guilty Right Along.—"When Mr. Gompers says he was surprised and that the McNamara brothers were guilty, he is not true," said Burns. "Mr. Gompers knew the McNamara brothers were guilty and he knew it all along. He knew it at the time he and the heads of the international union conferred at Indianapolis on the question of raising funds for the defense of the prisoners. Some of the other union men knew of their guilt, too."

Darrow Said It Was No Frame-Up.—"Clarence Darrow told the labor men at that meeting in Indianapolis that he did not believe I framed up this case," the conviction today, it was admitted, pertained to a federal grand jury's investigation of the dynamiting.

NOBODY TO BE SPARED.—District Attorney Denies That McNamara Confession Will Save Others.—Los Angeles, Dec. 3.—"It is only a question now of whether the federal government or the state authorities can reach certain persons and bring them to justice more effectively," concluded the statement made here today by the district attorney, who has been in charge of evidence for the prosecution and while his chief, District Attorney Frederick, was reading on a bench near here today, Mr. Ford occupied himself with the McNamara case. He admitted that the prosecution had under surveillance in other parts of the country some prominent leaders alleged to have been involved in the investigation.

The federal government has shown every disposition to assist us and we are helping the state in the case," he said. The vigor with which the but nothing else could be learned about it. The federal grand jury will continue its investigation Dec. 14.

THAT $100,000 FUND.—Brooklyn Labor Men Would Aid Those Brought by Explosion.—New York, Dec. 3.—The proposal that the fund of $100,000 subscribed by labor unions for the defense of the McNamara brothers be turned over to the relatives of victims of the Los Angeles Times building disaster was endorsed at a meeting of the Central Labor union of Brooklyn today. The McNamara brothers were severely injured and the sympathy and support of the Brooklyn unions was promised.

Witnesses Turn Over Bribes.—Pass Over to Prosecution Money Paid Them by Defense.—Los Angeles, Dec. 3.—The judge, it is believed, will sentence James B. McNamara to life imprisonment and John J. to twenty years imprisonment. Under the parole law, John J. might be released from custody in a few years.

The indictments against John J. in connection with the Times building disaster will not be pressed now, but they will stand on record to be acted upon according to the wishes of the prosecution. That it will act as a lever upon John J. McNamara is admitted by officials.

Cabled Paragraphs

Bangkok, Siam, Dec. 3.—The coronation of King Chulalongkorn Rajavajuvad was carried out here with elaborate ceremony.

Paris, Dec. 3.—The Curie-Langevin case, according to the intramural, has been settled out of court.

Munich, Dec. 3.—The aviator Reeb, while making a flight today from Munich to Nuremberg, fell and was instantly killed.

Dublin, Ireland, Dec. 3.—The Marquis of Waterford (Henry de la Poer Beresford) was found drowned in the River Clodagh, near his residence at Cluraghmore, in the county of Waterford.

Hobart, Australia, Dec. 3.—The Australian cricket expedition under the leadership of Dr. Douglas Mawson sailed for the south in the ship Aurora, commanded by Capt. J. K. Davis, yesterday.

Cologne, Germany, Dec. 3.—The military authorities are planning to build a canal across the Rhine, to be 30 miles long and 30 feet deep, and to be 10-15 feet wide. Its capacity will be 10-15 million cubic meters.

Berlin, Dec. 3.—An attempt is being made to induce the bringing of all political parties into union in a joint declaration in reference to the Congress of the Reichstag at the conclusion of the debate Dec. 5.

San Domingo, Dec. 3.—Congress yesterday elected Senator Eladio Vesteria, provisional president of the republic in the absence of the president, General Ramon Caceres. It is expected that the senate will confirm the election.

Copenhagen, Denmark, Dec. 3.—Miss Olga, daughter of Dr. Maurice P. Began, United States minister here, was married yesterday to Gabriel Armstrong, of the Philippines, formerly of the United States army, and a well known polo player.

Lisbon, Portugal, Dec. 3.—Jose Azouvedo, formerly minister of foreign affairs in the monarchist cabinet of Premier Antonio Teixeira de Sousa, ex-minister to China and editor of the Diario Popular, has been arrested and charged with conspiracy against the republic.

Bombay, Dec. 3.—"King-Emperor" George and "Queen-Empress" Mary, as they are officially styled since their arrival in their great eastern empire, landed from the steamer Medina at P. M. yesterday at the quay at the Apollo Bunder. They were met by the governor of Bombay and many high officials of the civil and military service.

NEW HAVEN PHOTOGRAPHY.—ARRESTED FOR BURGLARY.—Shot West Haven Man Who Caught Him Red Handed.—West Haven, Conn., Dec. 3.—In the arrest today in West Haven of Charles M. Hayes, who runs a photography studio here, a photograph of a man, yesterday at the quay at the Apollo Bunder. They were met by the governor of Bombay and many high officials of the civil and military service.

Believes in Divorce for Just Cause.—The royal moralist makes a determined onslaught on the traditionalists. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement.

Believes in Divorce for Just Cause.—The royal moralist makes a determined onslaught on the traditionalists. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement.

Believes in Divorce for Just Cause.—The royal moralist makes a determined onslaught on the traditionalists. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement.

Believes in Divorce for Just Cause.—The royal moralist makes a determined onslaught on the traditionalists. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement.

Believes in Divorce for Just Cause.—The royal moralist makes a determined onslaught on the traditionalists. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement.

Believes in Divorce for Just Cause.—The royal moralist makes a determined onslaught on the traditionalists. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement.

Believes in Divorce for Just Cause.—The royal moralist makes a determined onslaught on the traditionalists. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement.

Believes in Divorce for Just Cause.—The royal moralist makes a determined onslaught on the traditionalists. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement.

Believes in Divorce for Just Cause.—The royal moralist makes a determined onslaught on the traditionalists. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement.

Believes in Divorce for Just Cause.—The royal moralist makes a determined onslaught on the traditionalists. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement.

Believes in Divorce for Just Cause.—The royal moralist makes a determined onslaught on the traditionalists. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement.

Believes in Divorce for Just Cause.—The royal moralist makes a determined onslaught on the traditionalists. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement.

Believes in Divorce for Just Cause.—The royal moralist makes a determined onslaught on the traditionalists. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement.

Believes in Divorce for Just Cause.—The royal moralist makes a determined onslaught on the traditionalists. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement.

Believes in Divorce for Just Cause.—The royal moralist makes a determined onslaught on the traditionalists. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement.

Believes in Divorce for Just Cause.—The royal moralist makes a determined onslaught on the traditionalists. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement.

Believes in Divorce for Just Cause.—The royal moralist makes a determined onslaught on the traditionalists. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement.

Believes in Divorce for Just Cause.—The royal moralist makes a determined onslaught on the traditionalists. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement. He declares that the divorce law should be a law based on justice, not, as often happens, on tacit agreement.

Royal Blood of Japanese Aiding King is Stirred

King is Stirred

Chinese Rebels

MANCHURIANS SECÉDE

Likely to Become an Active Factor of Revolution—None of Provinces Responded to Call for a Congress.

Miss Catherine Norris, 50 Years Old, of Lynn, Mass., died at her home at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. E. Barr, at Lowell, Mass.

The Secretary of the Navy has created the new office of director of naval yards and navy stations, Admiral A. B. Willits to the position.

Fifteen Thousand Men Will Be Added to the Mexican Army, in accordance with an act passed last year making military service obligatory.

James Barry, for years the Official Hymnman of Great Britain, but now a traveling evangelist, reached New York Saturday to begin a four months' tour of religious work.

His Horse Frightened by the Breakdown of a car, he was thrown out of his carriage, dragged ten rods and killed.

The New Oil Trust Stalks Issues have failed well, but they have a traveling evangelist, reached New York Saturday to begin a four months' tour of religious work.

In the Same House at Fall River where his father committed suicide by hanging himself, he was killed.

Seven Persons in a Hydraulic Elevator which dropped from the eighth floor to the ground floor in New York City, were injured.

Mrs. Hannah McDade, 70, Fell 30 Feet to her death at her home at Lawrence, Mass., Saturday, a piazza railing against which she was leaning while hanging clothes on a line giving way.

The National Association of Retail Grocers opposes national padlock post on the ground that it will drive small retailers and establish the grip of the big order houses in small communities.

Fire in a Four Story Building at Haverhill, Mass., occupied on the ground floor by the Pentucket Clothing store, caused $30,000 damage Saturday.

President Taft Commuted the four-month sentence of Abraham Lichtenstein, a Russian, for a fine of $100,000, in New York, to expire December 15, reducing the time by one and a half months.

"I'm Done With Oris E. McManigal," said Mrs. McManigal, wife of the man who committed the explosion at the bridge and structural iron work since August, 1905, in many places, from Massachusetts to the Pacific coast.

The Appellate Division of the supreme court of New York denied the appeal of Mrs. Millard Hein, former consul general at London, for a divorce obtained by her husband.

The Maine Steamship Company's real estate and steamers will be transferred to the Eastern Steamship company, operating between Boston and eastern ports. This is a New York, New Haven and Hartford property.

The State Department is treating the case of Morgan Shuster, the young Russian, who was arrested in Persia, whose official head has been demanded by the Russian government, as that of an individual American citizen.

It is Reported That the Suncok Valley railroad stockholders have declined to accept the terms of President Charles S. Miller for the renewal of the lease of the road to the Boston and Maine and will operate the road themselves.

Frederick Thompson, prominent New York divorce lawyer, was arrested Saturday by Mrs. Mahel Thompson, an actress, known to the stage as a woman of the night, and repeated cruelty are charged by Mrs. Thompson in her bill.

Looking Herself in the Bathroom of her home in Harlem, Miss Adelaide Muller, who was arrested Saturday, was found to be a woman of the night, and repeated cruelty are charged by Mrs. Thompson in her bill.

Levi Rude of New Haven, a locomotive engineer on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, was arrested Saturday by Mrs. Mahel Thompson, an actress, known to the stage as a woman of the night, and repeated cruelty are charged by Mrs. Thompson in her bill.

Shooting Follows MONKEY ARGUMENT IN CRITICAL CONDITION. News from His Bedside Last Night Far from Encouraging.

New York, Dec. 3.—W. E. D. Stokes, the millionaire, who was arrested Saturday by Mrs. Mahel Thompson, an actress, known to the stage as a woman of the night, and repeated cruelty are charged by Mrs. Thompson in her bill.

Stokes is the complaining witness in the case of the shooting of Lillian Graham, the show girl charged with shooting and fatally wounding a man in a hotel room in New York last night. He was on the witness stand when the trial was adjourned over Thursday.

Stokes is the complaining witness in the case of the shooting of Lillian Graham, the show girl charged with shooting and fatally wounding a man in a hotel room in New York last night. He was on the witness stand when the trial was adjourned over Thursday.

Stokes is the complaining witness in the case of the shooting of Lillian Graham, the show girl charged with shooting and fatally wounding a man in a hotel room in New York last night. He was on the witness stand when the trial was adjourned over Thursday.

Stokes is the complaining witness in the case of the shooting of Lillian Graham, the show girl charged with shooting and fatally wounding a man in a hotel room in New York last night. He was on the witness stand when the trial was adjourned over Thursday.

Condensed Telegrams

Germany is Considering a Plan to spend $50,000,000 on the increase of its navy.

The International Opium Conference was opened. The League, with 12 nations participating.

Jesse Smith of Cleveland, O., was killed while operating an automobile at 60 miles an hour speed.

A fugitive for five years, Harry Ross returned to the Indiana reformatory to serve out a sentence for larceny.

A High Court in Canada has a case before it requiring a decision on the question of a dead human body as property.

Miss Catherine Norris, 50 Years Old, of Lynn, Mass., died at her home at the home of her sister, Mrs. J. E. Barr, at Lowell, Mass.

The Secretary of the Navy has created the new office of director of naval yards and navy stations, Admiral A. B. Willits to the position.

Fifteen Thousand Men Will Be Added to the Mexican Army, in accordance with an act passed last year making military service obligatory.

James Barry, for years the Official Hymnman of Great Britain, but now a traveling evangelist, reached New York Saturday to begin a four months' tour of religious work.

His Horse Frightened by the Breakdown of a car, he was thrown out of his carriage, dragged ten rods and killed.

The New Oil Trust Stalks Issues have failed well, but they have a traveling evangelist, reached New York Saturday to begin a four months' tour of religious work.

In the Same House at Fall River where his father committed suicide by hanging himself, he was killed.

Seven Persons in a Hydraulic Elevator which dropped from the eighth floor to the ground floor in New York City, were injured.

Mrs. Hannah McDade, 70, Fell 30 Feet to her death at her home at Lawrence, Mass., Saturday, a piazza railing against which she was leaning while hanging clothes on a line giving way.

The National Association of Retail Grocers opposes national padlock post on the ground that it will drive small retailers and establish the grip of the big order houses in small communities.

Fire in a Four Story Building at Haverhill, Mass., occupied on the ground floor by the Pentucket Clothing store, caused $30,000 damage Saturday.

President Taft Commuted the four-month sentence of Abraham Lichtenstein, a Russian, for a fine of $100,000, in New York, to expire December 15, reducing the time by one and a half months.

"I'm Done With Oris E. McManigal," said Mrs. McManigal, wife of the man who committed the explosion at the bridge and structural iron work since August, 1905, in many places, from Massachusetts to the Pacific coast.

The Appellate Division of the supreme court of New York denied the appeal of Mrs. Millard Hein, former consul general at London, for a divorce obtained by her husband.

The Maine Steamship Company's real estate and steamers will be transferred to the Eastern Steamship company, operating between Boston and eastern ports. This is a New York, New Haven and Hartford property.

The State Department is treating the case of Morgan Shuster, the young Russian, who was arrested in Persia, whose official head has been demanded by the Russian government, as that of an individual American citizen.

It is Reported That the Suncok Valley railroad stockholders have declined to accept the terms of President Charles S. Miller for the renewal of the lease of the road to the Boston and Maine and will operate the road themselves.

Frederick Thompson, prominent New York divorce lawyer, was arrested Saturday by Mrs. Mahel Thompson, an actress, known to the stage as a woman of the night, and repeated cruelty are charged by Mrs. Thompson in her bill.

Looking Herself in the Bathroom of her home in Harlem, Miss Adelaide Muller, who was arrested Saturday, was found to be a woman of the night, and repeated cruelty are charged by Mrs. Thompson in her bill.

Levi Rude of New Haven, a locomotive engineer on the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad, was arrested Saturday by Mrs. Mahel Thompson, an actress, known to the stage as a woman of the night, and repeated cruelty are charged by Mrs. Thompson in her bill.

Shooting Follows MONKEY ARGUMENT IN CRITICAL CONDITION. News from His Bedside Last Night Far from Encouraging.

New York, Dec. 3.—W. E. D. Stokes, the millionaire, who was arrested Saturday by Mrs. Mahel Thompson, an actress, known to the stage as a woman of the night, and repeated cruelty are charged by Mrs. Thompson in her bill.

Stokes is the complaining witness in the case of the shooting of Lillian Graham, the show girl charged with shooting and fatally wounding a man in a hotel room in New York last night. He was on the witness stand when the trial was adjourned over Thursday.

Stokes is the complaining witness in the case of the shooting of Lillian Graham, the show girl charged with shooting and fatally wounding a man in a hotel room in New York last night. He was on the witness stand when the trial was adjourned over Thursday.

Stokes is the complaining witness in the case of the shooting of Lillian Graham, the show girl charged with shooting and fatally wounding a man in a hotel room in New York last night. He was on the witness stand when the trial was adjourned over Thursday.

LONG SESSION OF CONGRESS WEEKLY

The Sixty-Second Which Convenes Today May Not Adjourn Until Middle of Summer

WILL STRUGGLE TO GAIN POLITICAL ADVANTAGE

Members of Both Parties Will Endeavor to Make Favorable Impression Upon the Electorate—Congressman Littleton May Take Up Cudgel in His Own Defence Today—Democrats Will Endeavor to Get Early Action on Tariff.

Washington, Dec. 3.—The first regular session of the sixty-second congress of the United States will convene tomorrow. Practically every member will be in his seat and the galleries, as usual, will be crowded. Legislators will not only be the beginning of a long session, Speaker Clark and other leaders having predicted that adjournment may not come until after the national convention of the two big political parties have been held. This has not happened since 1885.

A Struggle for Political Advantage. Hotel lobbies tonight were filled with groups in which the members of the two houses were conspicuous. There were many other out of town folks in the corridors, the usual contingent drawn to Washington during a congressional session by curiosity or by pending legislation. Tomorrow's opening will not only be the beginning of a congress in which party leaders will struggle for party advantage at the polls, but it will be the beginning of a struggle for political advantage at the polls.

Hotel lobbies tonight were filled with groups in which the members of the two houses were conspicuous. There were many other out of town folks in the corridors, the usual contingent drawn to Washington during a congressional session by curiosity or by pending legislation. Tomorrow's opening will not only be the beginning of a congress in which party leaders will struggle for party advantage at the polls, but it will be the beginning of a struggle for political advantage at the polls.

Hotel lobbies tonight were filled with groups in which the members of the two houses were conspicuous. There were many other out of town folks in the corridors, the usual contingent drawn to Washington during a congressional session by curiosity or by pending legislation. Tomorrow's opening will not only be the beginning of a congress in which party leaders will struggle for party advantage at the polls, but it will be the beginning of a struggle for political advantage at the polls.

Hotel lobbies tonight were filled with groups in which the members of the two houses were conspicuous. There were many other out of town folks in the corridors, the usual contingent drawn to Washington during a congressional session by curiosity or by pending legislation. Tomorrow's opening will not only be the beginning of a congress in which party leaders will struggle for party advantage at the polls, but it will be the beginning of a struggle for political advantage at the polls.

Hotel lobbies tonight were filled with groups in which the members of the two houses were conspicuous. There were many other out of town folks in the corridors, the usual contingent drawn to Washington during a congressional session by curiosity or by pending legislation. Tomorrow's opening will not only be the beginning of a congress in which party leaders will struggle for party advantage at the polls, but it will be the beginning of a struggle for political advantage at the polls.

Hotel lobbies tonight were filled with groups in which the members of the two houses were conspicuous. There were many other out of town folks in the corridors, the usual contingent drawn to Washington during a congressional session by curiosity or by pending legislation. Tomorrow's opening will not only be the beginning of a congress in which party leaders will struggle for party advantage at the polls, but it will be the beginning of a struggle for political advantage at the polls.

Hotel lobbies tonight were filled with groups in which the members of the two houses were conspicuous. There were many other out of town folks in the corridors, the usual contingent drawn to Washington during a congressional session by curiosity or by pending legislation. Tomorrow's opening will not only be the beginning of a congress in which party leaders will struggle for party advantage at the polls, but it will be the beginning of a struggle for political advantage at the polls.

Hotel lobbies tonight were filled with groups in which the members of the two houses were conspicuous. There were many other out of town folks in the corridors, the usual contingent drawn to Washington during a congressional session by curiosity or by pending legislation. Tomorrow's opening will not only be the beginning of a congress in which party leaders will struggle for party advantage at the polls, but it will be the beginning of a struggle for political advantage at the polls.

Hotel lobbies tonight were filled with groups in which the members of the two houses were conspicuous. There were many other out of town folks in the corridors, the usual contingent drawn to Washington during a congressional session by curiosity or by pending legislation. Tomorrow's opening will not only be the beginning of a congress in which party leaders will struggle for party advantage at the polls, but it will be the beginning of a struggle for political advantage at the polls.

Hotel lobbies tonight were filled with groups in which the members of the two houses were conspicuous. There were many other out of town folks in the corridors, the usual contingent drawn to Washington during a congressional session by curiosity or by pending legislation. Tomorrow's opening will not only be the beginning of a congress in which party leaders will struggle for party advantage at the polls, but it will be the beginning of a struggle for political advantage at the polls.

Hotel lobbies tonight were filled with groups in which the members of the two houses were conspicuous. There were many other out of town folks in the corridors, the usual contingent drawn to Washington during a congressional session by curiosity or by pending legislation. Tomorrow's opening will not only be the beginning of a congress in which party leaders will struggle for party advantage at the polls, but it will be the beginning of a struggle for political advantage at the polls.

Hotel lobbies tonight were filled with groups in which the members of the two houses were conspicuous. There were many other out of town folks in the corridors, the usual contingent drawn to Washington during a congressional session by curiosity or by pending legislation. Tomorrow's opening will not only be the beginning of a congress in which party leaders will struggle for party advantage at the polls, but it will be the beginning of a struggle for political advantage at the polls.

Hotel lobbies tonight were filled with groups in which the members of the two houses were conspicuous. There were many other out of town folks in the corridors, the usual contingent drawn to Washington during a congressional session by curiosity or by pending legislation. Tomorrow's opening will not only be the beginning of a congress in which party leaders will struggle for party advantage at the polls, but it will be the beginning of a struggle for political advantage at the polls.

Hotel lobbies tonight were filled with groups in which the members of the two houses were conspicuous. There were many other out of town folks in the corridors, the usual contingent drawn to Washington during a congressional session by curiosity or by pending legislation. Tomorrow's opening will not only be the beginning of a congress in which party leaders will struggle for party advantage at the polls, but it will be the beginning of a struggle for political advantage at the polls